

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA
NRMP Program #1622120C0

To be eligible for a training position at the HMS Family Medicine Residency Program, all applicants must meet the following criteria:

- 1) Your application must be submitted through the Electronic Residency Application System (ERAS).
- 2) Be a graduate of an LCME-accredited medical school in the United States or Canada or an AOA accredited osteopathic school in the United States;
- 3) The Medical School that the Applicant has graduated from must appear on the list of medical schools recognized as "approved" by the Medical Board of California;
- 4) Graduates of international medical schools must hold a currently valid ECFMG certificate or possess a full and unrestricted license to practice medicine in the State of New Mexico, or have completed a Fifth Pathway program in an LCME-accredited medical school.
- 5) Applicants must be eligible for employment as verified by the US Department of Health and Human Services Office of Inspector General (OIG) and the Government Services Administration (GSA). Individuals on the OIG/GSA Exclusion List will not be considered for hire.
- 6) Applicants must take and pass Step II of the United States Medical Licensing Examination (USMLE) before beginning residency at the HMS FMRP and Step III must be successfully completed by the end of the second year of training (PGY2) in order to be considered for PGY3 positions.
- 7) Applicants must be eligible to receive a New Mexico Training License with the expectation that all requirements of the New Mexico Practice Act related to professional behavior, care of patients, and assurance of competency are adhered to while in training.
- 8) Applicants must possess a National Provider Identifier Number.
- 9) Applicants must be graduates of an approved medical school in the last three years.
- 10) Successful clearance of a Background Check, including fingerprints; and
- 11) Successful clearance of a drug screen.

NOTE: Meeting any or all of the aforementioned criteria do not guarantee an invitation to interview, nor an offer to fill a position.